EL TESORO, LOT #21 - OCEAN VIEWS IN TAMARINDO´S TOP GATED COMMUNITY Tamarindo first gained popularity in the mid 90's with the surf flick, The Endless Summer 2. Since then, there has been a steady growth of tourists and investors visiting the area. Tamarindo is located in the Guanacaste province of Costa Rica in the Northwest portion. It is the driest region of the country (300 days of sunshine yearly) and boasts the reputation of having the most beautiful beaches paired with incredible waves for surfers. You can walk from one end of Tamarindo to the other in about 20 minutes with over 50 restaurants, bars, clinics, fine dining, yoga, boutique shopping, and grocery stores. Several bi-lingual private schools are within 30 min from Tamarindo center. Liberia International airport is 1 hour away and international bi-ligual schools are readily available. El Tesoro is renown as Tamarindo's most exclusive gated community, offering an ideal location the center of the town and just across from the gorgeous white sand beach of Playa Tamarindo. El Tesoro is located only 5 minutes away from the Tamarindo regional airport and an hour from the Liberia International airport. Lot 21 is a prime location for those looking to stay tucked away from the hustle of the town center, but integrated enough so that you are just minutes away from the beach and the social scene. Neighboring estate prices range from $2 to $15 million. This massive homesite is one of the last opportunities to build your dream home in the most upscale community in the area. Land area totals 2692 m2 with no construction size restrictions. Contact us today for more information on this piece of gold!
